Stopped by for a short while at reception of Foreign Service Association, in their house.

This evening we went to a dinner in our honor given by the Luxembourg Minister and Mme. le Gallais. Delicious food.

Went to the office. Talked with Matthews and McWilliams about a telegram from the Secretary asking that I obtain the President's approval to proposed language in final message to Congress to accompany the documents which will require ratification by the Senate. The President was cruising on the "Williamsburg" for the weekend, but I was able to reach him by phone at the Superintendent's quarters at Annapolis and obtained his approval.

Lunch with Lorraine Shevlin.

Returned to the office at 6:00 p.m. and remained until 9:30, with Matthews and McWilliams, holding a telecon with Paris.

The Arthur Bliss Lanes came for dinner.
